Your Profile

You believe that we are meant to break down borders. You are passionately interested in what is happening in the world and you soak up new information like a sponge. The major issues and challenges in our world are exciting to me and they drive you on, especially around peace, prosperity, environmental protection, justice and human rights. You want to be socially engaged and you are curious about other cultures and ways of thinking. Finding solutions to a major challenge or finding a peaceful resolution to a conflict is extremely rewarding to you.

Key Information

The curriculum focuses highly in understanding the context of international politics and economics, ecology and ethics, legal regulations and cultural ideas, as well as the art of diplomatic negotiations from scratch.

By studying International Relations you will learn how to use diplomacy as a driving force to resolve conflict.

The content of the studies interlock as you will learn how to encourage knowledge and values when acting as an intermediary for other cultures.
